

Pre-Select Team Program

2016 Boys

The Rose City Futsal pilot Pre-Select Team Program is designed to provide players an opportunity to train and compete with players of similar abilities. Its goal is to help kids grow in all 5 aspects of the game: mentally, physically, technically, tactically and socially. It is a great opportunity for elite young players to develop in the way that many South American and European kids do - with a lot of Futsal!

The focus of this new program will be on the technical aspect of the game and individual technique to help players develop futsal specific foundational skills. This year-long program will in turn prepare players for our elite Select Team Program the following year. Futsal provides unparalleled benefits to player development with increased ball touches, need for speed, control, and quick decision making. Our competitive team training, seasonal leagues and local tournament(s) provide the best augmentation to any outdoor season.

Pre-Select teams will train under the same philosophies and methodologies as the Select Team Program while not having the expectation or pressure to prepare for out-of-state and/or international tournaments. For our Select Teams, we look to travel to USFF NW Regionals in March as well as potentially USFF Nationals in July. For the older age groups, we try to create international experiences. Last year, we sent players and coaches to Portugal and Argentina to compete against local futsal clubs.

Rose City Futsal will provide a consistent schedule with the appropriate number of training sessions and games for the age group so players can achieve their best potential. With an organized schedule, we hope that families will have an opportunity to also enjoy life outside of futsal/soccer which is an important aspect in a player's social development. Rose City Futsal will follow the European and South American calendar and will have players training on a 10-month calendar (September-June). During the Summer months, we expect and encourage players to have some down time from organized practices, enjoy family and the PNW sunshine. Players are still encouraged to kick the ball around with friends during the off-season in unstructured environments to allow for creativity to grow and to develop other aspects of the game and life. Open Plays and Summer Camps will still be offered for those wanting more time on the ball and some summer fun.

The goal of the Pre-Select Team Program for the 2016 boys is to create a training group of 14 - 16 players. This will allow for a healthy training environment. For all games (leagues, tournaments, friendlies), we will split the group into 2 teams of about 7-9 players each. We will rotate the rosters at random for each youth league game so the players can focus on their development and implement what they learned in practice that week.

Depending on numbers and the quality of the players, Rose City Futsal may decide not to create teams for certain age groups.

Our goal is to develop well rounded elite players that play with joy, confidence and character. At Rose City Futsal, we aim to develop and prepare young players for the challenges that they will face on and off the court. We want to create not only top level players but also great citizens.

Program Tryouts: Pre-Select Team tryouts will run on a low stress system. Players will mostly play while the coaches observe and make notes about which Rose City Futsal program will best suit the player's abilities and skills. All kids will be observed and recommended to one of Rose City Futsal programs:

- Pre-Select Team
- Jr Academy advanced classes and camps
- All Levels classes and camps

We encourage all players to come play and have some fun!

Frequently Asked Questions:

What is TALO and what do they bring to the Pre-Select and Select Team Programs?

Garga Caserta: TALO founder and current USWNT Performance Director, previously the Portland Thorns Performance Trainer.

TALO provides RCF Pre-Select and Select teams and its athletes with Sports Rehabilitation & Performance Development solutions by educating coaches, applying interventions in practice sessions, and monitoring measured sports science data over the course of the program year. Look to see TALO out on the court with the players for a portion of their training!

What is the difference between the Pre-Select Team Program and Select Team Program?

Pre-Select Team programs train 1x/week and focus on the foundational technical development of players and compete in local only youth leagues and tournament[s]. Games are used to focus on the player's development and implementation of their new knowledge from training, not winning.

The Select Team Program is a selected group of 7-9 players that train 1x, 2x, or 3x/week and play as a regular group throughout the year. Select teams focus on individual and collective technique, and individual and collective tactics with the older teams. These teams train all year to travel and compete at USFF Regionals and potentially other out-of-state or international tournaments or experiences. When the team travels, we are competing to win.

What is the difference between Pre-Select Team Program and Jr Academy Classes?

The Pre-Select Team Program is a selected group of 14-16 players that train 1x/week and play as a regular group throughout the year. Jr Academy classes are taught in 7-week sessions throughout the year. Players need to be approved by our Technical Directors as an advanced player in order to register. Advanced classes by their very nature, allow players to come and go during the year, whereas the Pre-Select Team Program expects a full-year commitment.

Can I do both Jr Academy classes and the Pre-Select Team Program?

Yes! If a player is interested, they may register to any Jr Academy class and/or School of Technique class to continue their development.

Will my child's group be assigned a coach?

Groups will have an assigned coaching staff - but may also work with different coaches throughout the year. With our Technical Directors and Program Directors overseeing programs and hands-on involvement, we look to assure consistency and continuity throughout Rose City Futsal Programs at all age levels.
